Day 1 Checklist

Friendly volunteers are here to help.

It's your first time at HCASC and you don't know what to do. Be cool! Arrival day can be hectic, but this quick guide will help to make it a snap.

✓ID photos will be taken in the Palm Ballroom and your WHOLE TEAM must be present. Never fear, yearbook portraits will be taken later in the Rose room so you can look your best.

✓The Rules Briefing (Palm Ballroom throughout the afternoon) is suggested for all players and coaches. This is a great chance to clear up any confusion before you get into the game rooms.

✓The Divisional Meetings at 5:30 are MANDATORY. Your division liaison will show you the ropes and go over the game play schedule.

✓Choose a tour and sign up. Disney parks or Universal Studios thrill rides? Perhaps a spiritual-filled Gospel Brunch at the House of Blues? Sign up quickly... the tours fill up fast.

✓Friday's games start early and you want to be at your best, so make sure to get a good night's sleep.

✓Last, but not least, meet some new people and try to make a new friend. HCASC is about making connections and this year, we hope that you will make some Friends for Life.

Best wishes to all teams for a great competition. Good Luck!

Welcome!

Eric Conn

On behalf of American Honda, it is my pleasure to welcome you to the 2005 Honda Campus All-Star Challenge.

Over the past 16 years, the HCASC has seen exciting game play, great sportsmanship and everyone has had a memorable experience.

You are the best and the brightest from across the country and we salute you. While you represent America's Historically Black Colleges and Universities, this week you are part of one big family. This family will help provide the vision and the support that will carry you well into the future.

Over the next few days you will face each other in some very stiff competition and participate in many fun and engaging activities. The entire week is designed to test your skill, reward your perseverance and enable you to make new friends and look into the future.

The theme this year is "Sharing the Vision". Your time at HCASC, the friends you will make and the networks you will establish will all become part of your future success. I encourage you to make the most of this opportunity.

So welcome! Get ready for a wonderful experience that will last for many years.

Friday Night is "Live"

Are you ready to face the music? Are you ready to put down the buzzer and pick up the mic? Then you're exactly the type of person we're looking for to shine your talents in All-Star Idol.

Whether you croon tunes, juggle, dance or express yourself through poetry, there's a slot for you in our Friday Night Live Idol Showcase. Best of all, the audience favorite walks away with a brand new iPod.

Make sure you pick up a form at registration and turn it into any HCASC volunteer. Just fill in your name, school and a description of your act and you'll be on your way to fame and stardom. There will be a mandatory information meeting and practice session for all contestants Friday evening so plan accordingly.

In addition to the Idol competition, there are tons of other Friday night options, including movie choices, dining options, games and activities to enjoy. Check out the "Friday Night Live" brochure to get the scoop on all the excitement that's coming your way.

Friday Morning Game Schedule

Games start PROMPTLY at the times listed below, so make sure you're in your room ahead of time. Teams are required to be in their game rooms one match in advance, so make sure you keep up with your room's game schedule. That way, you'll be on time, every time.

You received your complete game listing in your pre-arrival packets, but your liaisons have additional copies available for your convenience. Also included are your appointment times for the official team and yearbook photos, so plan ahead and dress to impress.

Student Union & Honda Expo Has New Home

Are you a fan of Dominoes... Texas Hold 'Em or Halo? If so, make sure to enter the cool contests in the Student Union & Honda Expo. You could win an iPod Shuffle, a DVD player and lots more! There are prizes awarded every night, so you have lots of chances to celebrate your skills with a great reward. And the fun doesn't stop with cards. There are billiards contests, video game challenges and even a Karaoke competition, so everyone can strut their stuff.

And if you're hungry, the Student Union has the food and drink to recharge your body and spirit. This year, breakfast and lunch will be served in the Student Union "Food Court" so you can always pop down between games to grab a snack.

Making personalized pins to share is a great way to make new Friends for Life mail from the Cyber Café of web-ready PCs? You can surf to keep up on the latest news or even get in a little last minute research for your next round.

This year, the TV lounge is back, with lots of big screen action for the "other" March Madness or to chill out with your favorite shows and dvds. We've also added a quiet zone where you can hang out on a couch and kick back with your new friends.

Whatever your pleasure, there's lots to enjoy in the Student Union & Honda Expo in the Pavilion.

Breakfast and lunch are in the Student Union's "Food Court" this year
