Idol Offers Fifteen Minutes of Fame

We all crave our fifteen minutes of fame and HCASC All-Star Idol gives the intellectual minds a creative break for their Friday evening.

Randy, Paula, and Simon, the real talent is in Orlando. HCASC All-Star Idol brought out the writers, the dancers, the steppers all in the name of FAME and prizes. Organized by the graduate student interns from Iowa State University, the evening was hosted by HCASC favorite, Robert Duckworth.

After a night full of laughter, song and dance, the winners were announced. Theron Ngaqui and Christopher Binns of Virginia State University won for best group presentation after performing a step routine with an HCASC twist, Jarvis Releford, Fort Valley State, won the freestyle portion and the overall winner was Jennine Krueger from Huston Tillotson.

GAME RECAPS

In the second game of the Bessie Smith, division, Clark Atlanta and Xavier set an exciting precedent. XU started off with a bang and CAU soon answered, pulling it out in the last bonus of the game.

Amen was the first answer, given by Benedict captain, Houston Todd, and the team continued to play the game with the skill of the experienced. Virginia State did not make it into the plus column until 30 seconds left in the first half.

Tennessee State University, always representing well at HCASC, has continued its tradition of connecting teamwork and knowledge to end the first day of competition with a 4-0 record.

YOUR HCASC MOMENTS...

"HCASC is a gathering of HBCUs coming together, networking and sharing together in camaraderie in a challenge of knowledge. SHAW U!!!"

*Michael Cobb

"The spirit of HCASC to me is the divine synergy between knowledge and fellowship. It's like competing all year just so you can get back to your family reunion."

*LaKeisha Sanderlin
Norfolk State University*

Fisk University LOVES Honda!

Tyra Banks would be proud!

Ladies of Chicago State University's team pause for a smile!

Joshua Lazard of Fisk University supports the first ever HCASC Blood Drive
